Food for the Region

REGIONAL FOOD SYSTEM CONFERENCE

SOUTH WEST WALES

How can we ensure access to healthy, local food?

What are the big issues and opportunities?

What can we all do differently?

6PM TUES 5TH OCT & 10AM WED 6TH OCT

IF YOU EAT, GROW, SELL OR BUY FOOD - OR MAKE POLICY...

Please join our regional online conference, not to hear a load of speakers, but to share your views, insights and aspirations with people you don't normally get to speak to!

LET'S TALK ABOUT FOOD, FARMING & THE FUTURE WE WANT

HOW CAN WE...?

support regional producers,

shorten supply chains,

develop climate resilience,

improve our health and wellbeing, protect and enhance nature.

*With an opening address from Julie James,
Wales' Minister for Climate Change
on Day Two, Wed 6th October*

"Wales needs to do twice as much on climate change in the next decade as we've done in the previous 30 years. It is possible to do it but it will mean all of us playing our part."

Julie James MS, June 2021
